SUMMARY OF INFORMATION:

SG1B

1. (S/NF/SK) Describe the people inside the [REDACTED] There are four "groups" or "types" of people in the house:

a. An obnoxious little man who is apparently in charge of the others, and who is loud and talkative. He is filled with a sense of pride, excitement, and the thrill of adventure in "facing the unknown". He is feeling some impatience.

b. A group of 7 or 8 people who want to be there. These people are armed. Some are in uniforms, some are not. These people are bored, but are waiting patiently, and have a modicum of hope. They have a very slight sense of discouragement, and feel a small amount of annoyance with the obnoxious little man.

c. A group of 4 or 5 people who do not want to be there. I did not get impressions of how they were dressed, or whether or not they were armed. They are filled with some mild fear (but not strong fear). One of them is also feeling a strong sense of adventure. They are all bored, and filled with disgust about the obnoxious little man and the situation in general. One of this group is also feeling a very sarcastic humorous feeling about the whole situation, but about the obnoxious man, in particular.

d. A group of several men, most of whom are in uniform, all of whom are armed. They are in the side rooms of the building, sleeping, or otherwise resting.

2. (S/NF/SK) Describe the activities of the people:

a. The activity in the smaller rooms is that of resting and/or sleeping.

b. The activity in the large, main room is that of sitting, passing the time, talking, and listening to the obnoxious little man as they watch him strut like a peacock.
